

News Release

October 2008

Free seminar helps businesses keep up with environmental legislation...

With an increasing array of environmental legislation and higher penalties for non-compliance, this seminar aims to keep Peterborough businesses up to date.

Business Envestors, part of Peterborough Environment City Trust is providing a free breakfast seminar to help ensure your business is compliant.

The seminar includes a guest speaker from the Environment Agency to answer all questions on existing and emerging environmental legislation.

Find out which legislation you need to be aware of and what new legislation is in the pipeline.

Learn how to compile and maintain a register of environmental legislation as part of an ongoing Environmental Management System such as ISO14001.

The seminar is being held on Tuesday 7th October, 9am – 11.30am and is being held at Peterborough Environment City Trust, 4-6 Cowgate, Peterborough, PE1 1NA.

To book your free place visit <http://www.businessinvestors.co.uk/calendar.html> and download the booking form, or call Clare Watters on 01733 897780.

Notes to Editor

1. Peterborough Environment City Trust (PECT) is a charity set up following Peterborough's designation as a UK Environment City. 2008 marks 15 years of PECT and 15 years of Peterborough's commitment to the environment. PECT carries out research and implements practical projects to protect and improve the environment. Our mission at PECT is to lead and support the city in delivering growth and regeneration in a truly environmentally sustainable way. As a successful charity we work with a wide variety of stakeholders to make a difference for our environment – through innovation, enterprise and commitment to action on the ground. PECT has a strong track record of delivering projects of regional and national significance. It has a staff of 35 working on initiatives from green spaces to business environmental management to sustainable communities and lifestyles.
